TRIAL QUESTIONS

Subject--Verb Agreement Worksheet

In the following examples, underline the simple subject and circle the correct verb.

1. The causes of this horrible disease (are/is) poor diet and lack of exercise.

2. The noise of the fan's screams (is/are) a problem at some football stadiums.

3. The legacy of Larry Bird and Magic Johnson (influences/influence) the NBA today.

4. The theory of physics (state/states) that all things are made of energy.

5. The malware on all the office computers (is/are) a danger to our security.

6. There (is/are) five broken chairs in the office.

7. Neither my mom nor my sisters (know/knows) proper grammar

8. The members of the committee (is/ are) very esteemed in their respective fields.

9. The committee (meet/meets) in the fancy office building.

10. Scissors (is/are) too dangerous to give to small children.

11. The pair of scissors (is/are) in the drawer.

12. Every single one of your sweaters (is/are) too small for me to wear.

13. Your sweaters (is/are) too small for me to wear.

14. The couch and the recliner I bought at Goodwill (looks/look) a lot more expensive than they actually are.

15. There (is /are) Exercises on Subject-Verb Agreement

Selection the appropriate verb form from the options in the bracket and underline its corresponding subject

1. Either loose or periodic sentences (is/are) necessary in good writing; both (is/are) used by all writers.

2. The President of the SRC presented his views to the committees which (was/were) corrected and amended.

3. He seldom (laughs/laugh) and when he (does/do) it (seems/seem) so forced.

4. The use of standard English in all forms of writing (furthers/ further) her chances of being successful.

5. One of the members of the family (was/were) elected as successor to the throne.

6. Having put my academic programme first, extracurricular activities (comes/come) as a close second.

7. The business letter and the technical report must be handled in minimum time; so both of these, especially the business letter, (tends/tend) to use short paragraphs.

8. Kwame, together with some of his friends, (is/are) in deep trouble with the disciplinary committee.

9. The secretary's only excuse (continues/continue) to be the many interruptions he has to put up with.

10. There (is/are) enough noise in the Hall without parties and dawn prayers.

11. Athletics in the revised curriculum (has/have) become both varied and extensive.

12. Neither the Vice-Chancellor nor faculty members (takes/take) such a decision.

13. There (is/are) too many grammatical errors in this essay.

14. The sprinter who (gets/get) to the crossroads first (has/have) a big advantage.

15. The good news (is/are) that she won that tough competition.

16. Twenty-five percent discount on the jacket (does/do) not appear to be a very good bargain.

17. Either Physics or Electronics (is/are) very useful for everyone in that discipline.

18. One of the disasters which often (occurs/occur) when you are travelling is to arrive at your destination without your luggage.

19. The member of parliament as well as the assemblyman (was/were) highly commented.

20. Either the uncle or the nephews (has/have) to attend this important meeting.

21. The clergy (makes/make) the big decisions on such matters.

22. There (is/are) highly confidential reports that always (manages/manage) to acquire publicity.

23. What the geologist is looking for (is/are) evidence of the history of the earth.

24. The drug dealer, together with his agents, (was/were) arrested outside the city.

25. After twenty-five exercises on the subject-verb agreement, banku and okro soup (is/are) the food to make up for your lost energy. one way I can answer your question: Yes, I will marry you.

TRIAL QUESTIONS

Subject--Verb Agreement Worksheet

In the following examples, underline the simple subject and circle the correct verb.

1. The causes of this horrible disease (are/is) poor diet and lack of exercise.

2. The noise of the fan's screams (is/are) a problem at some football stadiums.

3. The legacy of Larry Bird and Magic Johnson (influences/influence) the NBA today.

4. The theory of physics (state/states) that all things are made of energy.

5. The malware on all the office computers (is/are) a danger to our security.

6. There (is/are) five broken chairs in the office.

7. Neither my mom nor my sisters (know/knows) proper grammar

8. The members of the committee (is/ are) very esteemed in their respective fields.

9. The committee (meet/meets) in the fancy office building.

10. Scissors (is/are) too dangerous to give to small children.

11. The pair of scissors (is/are) in the drawer.

12. Every single one of your sweaters (is/are) too small for me to wear.

13. Your sweaters (is/are) too small for me to wear.

14. The couch and the recliner I bought at Goodwill (looks/look) a lot more expensive than they actually are.

15. There (is /are) only one way I can answer your question: Yes, I will marry you.