SB/BMS/13/0051

UNIVERITY OF CAPE COAST
INFORMATION LITERACY SKILLS UNIT

First Semester Examination 2013/2014

Answer three (3) questions in all; one (1) from each section.
All questions carry equal marks of 20.

Section A

1a. What is Information Literacy?
1b. Mention four (4) characteristics of someone who is information literate.
1c. What five (5) advantages do you have in using an electronic/digital library?

2. List and write short notes on any four (4) services offered in an academic library.

Section B

3a. Mention any two activities that are performed in the organization of knowledge.
3b. Write short notes on plagiarism.
3c. Using two examples, one signal phrase and the other parenthesis, explain citing sources in-text.
3d. Most academic libraries use the Library of Congress Classification Scheme. What subjects do the following alphabets stand for?:

i. G
ii. P
iii. R
iv. K
v. S

4a. State three reasons why library materials are organized.
4b. Write short notes on copyright.
4c. What is referencing/bibliography? Using the APA style, illustrate your answer with one example.
4d. State clearly, any two distinguishing features between the APA and the MLA referencing styles.
4e. Arrange the following authors according to alphabetical sequence bringing the surname first:

i. George Abbot-Smith
ii. Patrick Abbot
iii. Pamela Abbort
iv. Panford Abbotte
v. Christian Abott
vi. Wilfred Abbot-Smith

Section C

5a. Demonstrate the steps for effective searching with practical examples and illustrations.
5b. List four (4) types of databases you get on-line.
5c. Give four (4) reasons why we need to conduct effective searching on-line.

6a. The Internet has no controlling body. How would you ensure that information obtained on-line for your academic work is genuine? Give five (5) criteria.
6b. List six (6) types of information you can find on-line.
6c. Mention four (4) types of broadband connections.